NEWSLETTER

Welcome to the community!

Quarter 1 brought a few new faces to the community! We would like to welcome the following members to The Link:

Allison Nance	John Greenwich
Dan Mackett	Mary Catlin
Efrain Arellano	Paula Thomas
Henning Saul	Vu Nguyen

The networking opportunities in our coworking space have grown tremendously, creating a vibrant environment where people from different fields can connect and collaborate. Members are forming valuable relationships that help them advance in their careers. Our diverse community of entrepreneurs, freelancers, and start-up businesses have made it easier for everyone to expand their professional networks and discover new opportunities. It's a great space for learning and growing for members of The Link!

A Very Festive New Year: Member Events

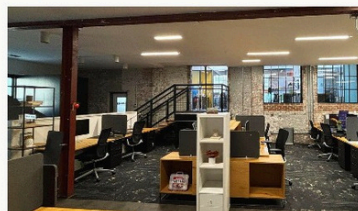

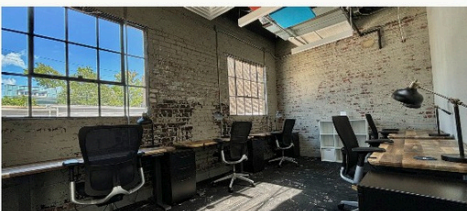

During Quarter 1, The Link hosted a variety of fun and engaging member events. Members spent each week patiently waiting for our monthly Taco Tuesdays, where everyone enjoyed delicious tacos and great company. A couple members also sponsored tasty lunch gatherings, adding some variety and flavor to our meals. We celebrated Mardi Gras with a festive atmosphere, complete with King Cake and beignets, and wrapped up the quarter with a lively St. Patrick's Day potluck, where members brought in their favorite festive dishes to share. It's been a great start to the year, with lots of opportunities for connection and community!

Our Plans

A Website Built For All

We've recently updated our website to make it easier to sign up and navigate through. With a smoother user experience, it's now quicker to find what you need and join our community. If you know anyone interested in coworking, be sure to share the news with them—it's simpler than ever to become a member at The Link!

A Brand New View

We're excited to unveil our newest exterior design project at The Link in Old Town! The updated look features our name prominently displayed in bold letters at the top of the building, making it easier for everyone to spot us. This fresh new design adds to the vibrant character of our space and enhances the overall vibe of Old Town. Check it out next time you're outside!
